D. LOCAL AIRPORT AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: Nothing in this Article precludes Federal Security Directors (FSD) or their designees from developing and using additional awards (e.g., "Employee of the Month") and/or means of recognizing bargaining unit employees appropriate to their airports (e.g. certificates, plaques).

E. GENERAL:

- Management retains the discretion to determine how much, if any, of its budget will be allocated for awards and cognition and when funds become available for distribution.
- 2. Awards that provide monetary recognition will be in the form of a lump payment.
- It is the policy of TSA to recognize and reward significant employee contributions and achievements in a fainanner consistent with TSA Management Directive 1100.45 Awards and Recognition
- 4. Within nirety (90) calendar days after the end of the fiscal year, TSA will provide AFGE Council 100 with an electronic annual report on the awards program for bargaining unit employees which contains the total annual awards allocation for each hub and the total expenditure of the awards budget per hub. For CAT X and CAT I airports only, the report will assign each LTSO and TSO who received an award a random numeric value and provide the position, grade, and award category for each anonymized LTSO and TSO.
- 5. Awards andecognition may not be used as a substitute for overtime pay, promotion, or any other purpose not compatible with the criteria for awards and recognition described in this Article and in SA Management Directive 1100.45. Awards and Recognition
- 6. Documentation will be provided to each award and recognition recipient detailing the award and the exceptional contribution leading to the bargaining unit employee's recognition.
- 7. TSA will continue to publish award criteria by making TSA Management Directive 1100.451, Awards and Recognition and any subsequent revisions, available on TSA's iShare.
- 8. Management will consider for award recognition bargaining unit employee contributions such as langage skills or employee flexibility in support of operational challenges such as samesex gender patowns and other screening requirements consistent with this Article.
- When a bargaining unit employee is granted a time off award, management will timely inform the bargaining unit employee.

F. JOINT AWARDS COMMITTEES:

1. At the commencement of each fiscal year, the Federal Security Director or designee and the local AFGE Local President or designee will establish a Joint Awards Committee (JAC) at CAT X, I, and I(hub) airports. Such committees will be made up of an equal number of bargaining unit employees and local TSA management. The FSD or designee has the discretion to increase the percentage of bargaining unit employees participating on the JAC to greater tha fifty percent (50%) of the total. However, at least one member of the JAC must be a management official. Representatives are generally expected to serve on the JAC for the fiscal year.

- 2. Bargaining unit employees will be selected to serve on the JAC in accordance with the following process:
 - a. All bargaining unit employees are eligible to apply to serve on the JAC.
 - Management will post a solicitation announcement electronically for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days and on official bulletin boards, wherehsavdst, for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days.
 - The area of consideration will be either a specific airport or a hub and spoke(s), as determined by management.
 - Interested bargaining unit employees must apply in accordance with the requirements of the internal announcement prior to the closing date of the announcement.
 - e. The internal announcement must include the following information:
 - i. Opening and closing dates
 - ii. Area of consideration
 - iii. Description of duties and responsibilities of JAC membership
 - iv. Point of contat information.
 - f. Applications will be reviewed by the FSD or designee and the local AFGE President or designee within the local who will jointly select the bargaining unit members of the JAC.

3 JAC Procedures:

- a. Bargaining unit employees serving on the JAC whillso on duty time.
- b. The JAC will evaluate awards and recognition nominations, including espot, special achievement awards, and time off awards argaining unit employees. The JAC will submit recommendations for such awards to the designated management official for final approval. All JAC members are responsible for assuring that recommendations for awards and recognition are based on merit and consistent with criteria set forth IriSA Management Directive 1100.45Awards and Recognition
- The required quorum for any JAC meeting is at least three members: two bargaining unit employees andne from management.
- d. To ensure the JAC is prepared to execute its responsibilities under this Article, each JAC will prepare a charter, signed by the JAC Ochairs, and will review these procedures when necessary.
- 4. JAC deliberations concerning awards nominations and recommendations will be considered confidential by both Parties and JAC members and as such, will not be publicized to the bargaining unit. This provision is not intended to prohibit either party or JAC members from presenting evidence or providing testimony regarding the conduct of a JAC member in a thirparty proceeding (e.g., arbitration, EEO complaint, or any other aspect of TSA's unitary dispute resolution system) where such evidence or testimony is relevant or necessary to the adjudication of the case.

Note: Highlighted sections are not agreed to and have been submitted to arbitration.

- JAC members may not participate in or be present during the deliberation of an award recommendation for which they are nominated or for which there is a conflict of interest (e.g. nominations for relatives).
- 6. Management has the discretion to ment awards under this Article without conducting a formal nomination process. However, when management grants an award under this Article, the awardee(s) and AFGE local president will be notified of the management official granting the award and a brief description of the basis for the award.

G AWARDS AND RECOGNITION NOMINATION PROCEDURES:

- 1. Bargaining unit employees may submit nominations to the JAC on TSA Form 1140 or any other format approved by the JAC Cobairs. Recommendations will be submitted by the JAC to the official with award approval authority on TSA Form 1140.
- Nominations for awards and recognition under this process will be submitted in the following ways:
 - Groups/Teams: may be nominated by agreement of the group/team's members; sponsor or supervisor of the group/team; and/or nominated by a TSA employee who uses or benefits from the group's/team's services or products.
 - Bargaining unit employees may be nominated by a pervicorker, a manager, or supervisor.
- 3. To ensure bargaining unit employee -initiated nominations have been processed and forwarded to the JAC, bargaining unit employees may also provide a copy of submitted nominations to their AFGE Local President or designee. Nothing in this provision is intended to prevent JAC consideration and award nomination for which the Union was not provided a copy.
- 4. Awards and recognition nominations should be solicited and processed throughout the year. At least once each fiscal quarter, the FSD or designee will formally solicit nominations for individual and/or group/team awards.
 - Bargaining unit employees will be provided a minimum of fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the solicitation announcement to submit award nominations to the designated JAC or management Point of Contact (POC).
 - b. Within fourteen (14) calendar days from the closing date for nominations, the JAC may meet to evaluate the nominations. The JAC will use consensus decision making methods to recommend to management which nominees should receive awards and may also recommend awambunts if delegated the authority in the local charter. If the JAC is unable to reach consensus, a majority vote (i.e., more than fifty percent (50%)) of the JAC members present at the meeting will determine whether the JAC will forward a nomination as award recommendation. In the event of a tie, the determination to forward a nomination will favor the nomine.
- 5. In accordance with applicable law, rule, and regulation, bargaining unit employees may not receive awards under this process for the performage of union representational functions. However, union representatives may be considered for awards related to their TSA job duties.

6. Within thirty (30) calendar days of receiving the JAC or management recommendations, the official with award approval authöy will consider the recommendations and accept, modify, or reject them. If the recommendation is rejected, the JAC may request a short explanation for the rejection from the designated management official and submit a written request for reconsideration the designated management official.
